

Since N.J.'s Do Not Call list was enacted I have had peace of mind. Previously I was constantly disturbed by telemarketers and harassing phone calls. I was becoming hostile to callers. Now my hostility is gone and our phone and home are a peaceful place to come home to. Please keep NJ's Telephone Consumer Protection Act in Place.